

Welcome to the Casa Rondinella

Imagine yourself in the middle of an unspoiled country side with complete quietness surrounding you. Add a charming house made of natural stone, terraces with a breathtaking view and a swimming pool in the middle of a sunny mountain side. Mix everything together with the culinary delicacies of the region and the quaint outings to the picturesque medieval locations the area has to offer while leaving all the mass tourism and hectic of daily life behind you. The result is a perfect holiday for families and stressed-out people who are looking for something special: a holiday in Umbria – the green heart of Italy – in the Casa Rondinella in Vio close to Sellano.
